

Syllabus - Effective Classroom Management

Course Introduction -

- This course offers effective ideas, strategies and tools for better behavior management in your classroom. Using literature from today's educational leaders, you will study the process which creates smooth lessons despite disruptive behavior, as well as classroom management techniques which are necessary for instructional success. Minimizing and/or preventing unwanted student behavior is a goal of all educators and through this course you will be asked to self-reflect on your own classroom management style and apply "new learning's" to your individual pedagogy.

Course Material –

- Once payment is received, students will be e-mailed a Course Completion Packet which includes all necessary information and material for course completion. Packets include information for ProQuest access, a literature list, and coursework.

Integrity Statement –

- Students will be asked to sign an Academic Integrity Statement which discusses the structure and format of our independent study course. To successfully complete each course a high level of personal and academic integrity is required. Individuals enrolled in an independent study course are expected to adhere to the standards of academic conduct.

Plagiarism –

- Plagiarism is a form of academic dishonesty and will not be tolerated. If in the opinion of our Governing Board there is evidence that a student has committed such an act, an immediate removal from course and loss of credit (i.e., clock hours, CEU, SB-CEUs, etc.) will result.

Course Objectives –

- Complete initial self-reflection of current classroom management practice.
- Identify strengths and weaknesses of classroom management techniques.
- Analyze literature delineating best practices for improving student behavior.
- Apply "new learning" to classroom management practice and pedagogy.

Student Expectations –

- Access ProQuest to retrieve literature (a literature list will be provided upon payment).
- Analyze all literature related to course objectives.
- Complete "Literature Review" and submit work for course completion approval.

ProQuest Information -

- ProQuest is an electronic publisher of educational journals, articles, dissertations and periodicals; you will access ProQuest and retrieve all literary documents associated with your course (Literature List will be provided). Students will access ProQuest through their personal TeacherEdOnline account.
